Atlas of Epidemiology of Natural Epidemic Diseases in China

This atlas is the result of the ‘Compilation and Research for Atlas of Epidemiology of Natural Epidemic Diseases of China,’ a key project of national foundational scientific and technological work. It consists of three volumes in four parts.

Other Atlases

Atlas de epidemias : enfermedades mortales y contagiosas desde la peste hasta el virus del Zika
20-10-006 | $23.00 | PURCHASE

This book provides an overview of the spread of epidemics throughout history, from the plague that devastated Europe in the 14th century and the deadly cholera outbreaks in the 19th century to the AIDS epidemic of the 1980s, the virus Ebola that spread from Africa and the disastrous spread of Zika in Brazil.

Underground cities : mapping the tunnels, transits and networks underneath our feet
20-10-007 | $66.00 | PURCHASE

With over 60 per cent of the world’s population living in cities, the networks beneath our feet – which keep the cities above moving – are more important than ever before. Yet we never truly see how these amazing feats of engineering work. Just how deep do the tunnels go? Where do the sewers, bunkers and postal trains run? And, how many tunnels are there under our streets? Each featured city presents a ‘skyline of the underground’ through specially commissioned cut-away illustrations and unique cartography. Drawing on geography, cartography and historical oddities, Mark Ovenden explores what our cities look like from the bottom up.

Atlas van de IJssel
20-10-008 | $60.00 | PURCHASE

The IJssel. A familiar but unpredictable river. Furious and then calm again, straightforward and then winding again. Where changes occur, stories are told. The IJssel is a primal story from the early Middle Ages, of growth and expansion but also of decline and contraction, and of attempts to control the flow of water time and again. Atlas van de IJssel uses historical map material and contemporary drone photos to tell the origins of a great diversity of areas that together form the IJssel valley. Whether it concerns the IJssel of the past or the present day - the atlas contains many unique images that are shown together for the first time.

Atlas van de wereldgeschiedenis : de geschiedenis van de mensheid in 515 kaarten
20-10-009 | $70.00 | PURCHASE

The Atlas of World History presents the history of mankind chronologically and in an unparalleled way. From the Mesopotamians and Ancient Egyptians to the Cold War and the Arab Spring, Christian Grataloup places each map in the context of world history with illuminating text and breathtaking images. The atlas combines the latest historical insights with the most creative cartography. In a phenomenal way it becomes clear which events from the past have led to today's world.

Atlas van WOII : de Tweede Wereldoorlog in meer dan 100 kaarten
20-10-010 | $40.00 | PURCHASE

The war that has killed more than any other in history comes to life in this book through specially crafted maps. They are provided with all the necessary graphics, symbols and legends to accurately reconstruct developments. From the invasion of Poland to the atomic bombing of Hiroshima, from the evacuation of Dunkirk to the landing in Normandy. They provide a unique overview at a glance.
